

SOMETHING PERSONAL
Sarah Murray, Urban Lace:
"Any treasured item becomes an heirloom."
Tea set, R600, Nonna

LOUIS GHOST CHAIR
Sam Sporides, Halogen:
"An edgy, enduring translation of style."
R2 757, Twice Group

CROCHETED BLANKET
Starry Eve Collett, designer:
"A lovely blanket survives fickle fashion."
R3 900, beatnikbazaar.co.za

SAILBOAT URN
Petta Mclellan, Blue Barn Interiors:
"This striking urn is durable and water-wise."
R2 900, arttodate.co.za

HEIRLOOMS OF THE FUTURE

KATIE THOMPSON'S REPURPOSED FURNITURE
Michelle Loder, Origins:
"These suitcase chairs are timeless and classic in design."
From R6 650, recreate.za.net

Want to know what to buy now that will remain stylish for years to come? We've asked the experts. It's time to go shopping for that future classic!

ISAMU NOGUCHI'S COFFEE TABLE
Sonja Dreyer, interior designer:
"This table is minimalistic, but fits in with any style of decor."
R7 500, livingroom.co.za

MOSAIC MIRROR
Jani Botha, Lifestyle Editor:
"A vibrant reflection of our colourful country."
R4 600, Papercake Trading

HAND-PAINTED CABINET
Carine Goss, designer:
"A classical, creative piece that will add character to any room."
R5 400, Dodo

ZASSENHAUS SCALE
Roland Granitzer, chef:
"This is symbolic of time spent preparing family recipes."
R680, Kitchen Passion

PENDANT LANTERN
Christelle Mattheus, Art Director:
"A uniquely South African piece."
R799, Weylandts w&h